

It's hard to breathe
And the pain in my chest.
Trembling lips -
I run from the past.

I think I'm dying
Tell me can't you see?
There is no love.
There is no desires
I just want to be far.
I just want to be free!

I want to move on
But no stumble at every step!
You whisper: come on!
I answer – I can't...

You are cruel. Dark around.
And you pushing me to back.
I just want from the start,
I just wish we never met.

Oh, please, let me go,
You're sucking out my soul.
Feelings my bleed, it you know.
But your heart is like a stone.

You're hurting my hands -
Are you confident master.
I just need count to ten,
I just have to run faster...
